VERANDA FURNITURETHE TIME FOR IT HAS ARRIVED.

To us it seems but a few weeks ago that we were clearing stocks of all Piazza and Reed Furniture preparatory for the winter season. But it was months ago—further proof that time does fly. Now we tell you of the splendid new things in easy and restful pieces of Veranda Furniture for those days when mother nature tempts one to imbibe the outdoor air.

The Veranda is an index to the interior of the house. You can always tell a neatly furnished house by the exterior. We are showing some decided novelties in the way of Three-Piece Suits for the Veranda. They can be seen in our windows today, together with Porch Shades, Swings, Rugs, odd Rockers, Chairs, etc., all the very latest creations for the outside of the house.

BARRE CANDY KITCHENImported Enameled Ware!

The feature is a spout without rivets and without seams. The spout is a part of the seamless tea-kettle body. A seamless spout, of course, eliminates the possibility of leaks or gathering of rust and germs. Leaky spouts are an annoyance to the consumer and costly to the merchant. PYRO-LITE (shown in above cut) is the only Entirely Seamless and Positively Non-Leak Enameled Ware. We are displaying a line of this Enameled Ware in our window, which we cordially invite one and all to inspect.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream" is a brilliant comedy, combining the most exquisite poetry and fantastic drolleries. Children's day this year in the Universalist church will be observed in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the setting apart of the day in the church calendar. Fifty years ago in June Rev. Charles H. Leonard, then pastor of the Universalist church in Chelsea, Mass., but now the venerable dean of Tufts divinity school, began the custom of decorating the church with flowers and of having a service for the children. It has been observed every year since, and has become very general in the churches of all denominations.

Children's Day in the Barre Universalist church will be June 10, when the anniversary will be re-announced and celebrated.

Satisfaction Costs Nothing.

Whether good, seasonable goods are going to give entire satisfaction or not depends on two points: First, are they suitable for the purpose for which you want them? Second, have they that inherent quality that makes for satisfaction? Unless we sell you goods are going to give entire satisfaction we cannot expect your good will and support, while we are striving each day to get and keep.
